

PRESS RELEASE

The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football.

CONCACAF Announces the Official Twitter Account Launch of President Jeffrey Webb

Through this account, the President will share his passion for football while engaging fans and stakeholders to encourage the love for the game. This new platform will allow the Confederation to build a stronger network that supports its mission to develop, promote and manage football throughout the region with integrity, transparency, and passion in order to inspire participation in the game.

Beginning May 1, 2014, we invite you to follow @jeffreywebb, to keep abreast of the President's latest activities in real time.

We look forward to connecting on Twitter.
